RUMNEY SCHOOL DISTRICT.

Superintendent's Report.

All the schools opened on time last fall with the following teachers in charge:

	NO. PUPILS
Village School, I-IV—Ruth E. Russell	10
Village School, V-VIII—Lela M. Clough	19
Depot School, I-IV—Mary R. Russell	11
Depot School, V-VIII—Emily E. Cook	15
Quincy—Mary E. Clement	14
Montview—Helen C. Draper	10
Stinson Lake—Ethel Stewart	19

The Schools are in good order, have run regularly, and effective work is being done.

Last year 160 different pupils registered in the schools, and the average membership was 107. The membership this year will be nearly the same, but the total registration will be somewhat less.

The following graduated from our schools in June.

Village School—Ethel M. Spaulding, Edith M. Thibdeau, Fletcher S. Pillsbury, Lora P. Lavelly.

Depot School—Marion L. Davis, Alline Portras, Winnie C. Sanborn.

Quincy School—Bernice A. Boswell, Grace I. Craig, Ralph C. Kennerson, Dorothy M. Whitney, Anabel A. Whitney, Viola G. Parris.

There are 18 pupils from Rumney attending high school. This number will be increased another year.

The present school facilities at Stinson Lake are entirely inadequate for the number of children who are attending now or who will attend in the next few years. The district will need to consider very carefully these conditions, and to make such arrangements at its school meeting that will enable the committee to provide a school building at the Lake that will meet the requirements of the State for the coming year.

The school board have been most faithful in the performance of their duties and have given hearty co-operation and assistance in every way.

Respectfully submitted,

C. M. HARRIS,

Superintendent.
